

Rock Art Brewery

Tap Room & Gallery

Our brewery began in 1997, in the same house we raised our kids, with a small 7-barrel system and a lot of hard work.

Four years later in 2001, we moved Rock Art Brewery from Johnson down the road to Morrisville. We're still proudly family owned and operating with our two sons now working beside us. Cody has been busy in the brew house crafting with Matt many of the new styles you've been enjoying. While Dylan works alongside Renee in the tap room.

Our tap room is also an incredible art gallery. Hosting works from more than 80 local Vermont artists.

With our 30th anniversary just around the corner, we're as dedicated as ever. Thank you for supporting and enjoying our hand crafted beers for all these years and for more to come.

Cheers! -Matt & Renee
